

Award of Occupational Safety and Health National Level from the Ministry of Labor of Thailand.

- December 2023

- F-TECH MFG.(THAILAND)LTD.

We Received the "Excellent Company Award for Safety, Health and Environment" from the Ministry of Labor of Thailand.

The award is in recognition of the status of safety and health management and its efforts. Last year the award was given by Ayutthaya Province, and this year the award was given by the national government. (There are 42 companies that have received this award nationwide.)

By clearing numerous evaluation criteria, the award was presented after a document review and on-site audit.
